The Joy of Remembrance and Celebration:

Over the last week we have had the joy of celebrating the Feast of St Patrick and the Feast of St Joseph. On Tuesday 23 March, we mark the anniversary of the first national lockdown with a minute's silence at midday. At 8pm, people will be encouraged to create a 'beacon of remembrance' on their doorsteps by beaming phones, candles and torches into the night sky. Prominent buildings and landmarks will also be lit up across the UK. Cardinal Nichols and Archbishop McMahon stress that prayer is an essential part of this reflection and remembrance: "For all who live by faith in God, reflection and prayer always go hand in hand. Prayer completes reflection. Reflection informs prayer. Prayer opens our life to its true horizon.

"Without prayer we live in a foreshortened world and are more easily swamped by its clamour and tragedy. Throughout this difficult year, so many have been inspired by prayer, so much effort sustained in prayer, in every place. So let us make 23 March truly a day of prayer." The archbishops also invite Catholics to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament that day: 23 March 2020 was the first time our churches had to be closed. It is our hope that on this day, every one of our churches will be open for an hour of prayer at some point throughout the day. We invite everyone to enter a church on this day, to reflect and pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. "We know this will involve an extra effort, but this can be part of our important contribution to a significant moment in the life of our country. Indeed, we ask that you might invite a friend, neighbour or colleague to come to church with you as you make this visit." To mark this period of reflection the church will be open for an hour of silent prayer before the Blessed Sacrament from 10am, closing with the Latin Benediction at 11am.

Last Friday we celebrated the Feast of St Joseph: In his apostolic letter "Patris Corde", Pope Francis, dedicated 8 December 2020 to 8 December 2021 as a year under the care of St Joseph. In addition, on 19 March Pope Francis proclaimed the Year from 19 March 2021 to 19 March 2022 to be "Amoris Laetitia Family": a celebration of the Christian Family.

Gilles and Véronique Cormier, Leaders of the CANA mission of the Chemin Neuf Community and parents of five children, share a summary of the document on parenthood and fatherhood. Click online for links to "Patris Corde" & "Amoris Laetitia"

Joseph is an obedient and courageous Father. Throughout his life he obeyed God often through dreams or angels sent to him (e.g. The Flight Out of Egypt.) He taught Jesus to be obedient to his parents (Luke 2:51). Just as Joseph teaches us the virtues of obedience, let us exercise our fatherhood, according to God's command. Joseph cared for Mary and Jesus and risked everything for them. God trusted this man and made his son dependent on him to be protected and nurtured. Let us ask ourselves if we are protecting Jesus and Mary with all our strength but also our family members?

Joseph is a father in unconditional acceptance. He welcomed Mary with delicacy; he chose to put her reputation and dignity first. When life is difficult our first reaction is disappointment or rebellion. St Joseph leaves aside his reasoning and accepts life as it is with strength. Let us have Joseph's courage to face life's difficulties without giving up. Through the Holy Spirit, let us act with courage and responsibility as he did. Our lives can then start anew if we find the courage to live it according to the Gospel. "God is greater than our heart" (1 Jn 3:20). The reality of our lives as a family, with its shadows and lights, is meaningful.

Joseph is a working father. It can help us to understand, in our time of great precariousness, the meaning of work which gives dignity. During 30 years in Nazareth he patiently taught his son a trade; Jesus did not disdain to work as all men. The person who works is collaborating with God himself and becomes a creator of the world around us.

Joseph, the earthly shadow of the heavenly Father. Fathers are not born but made by creating a child and responsibly caring for him. Being a father means introducing the child to the experience of life and making him capable of choices. This logic of love liberates: St Joseph knew how to love in an extraordinarily free way. It is this chaste love to which we are all called towards our loved ones. The happiness of Joseph, in whom we perceive neither frustration nor complaints, is in self-giving. Each child carries with him a mystery that can only be revealed with the help of a father who gives freedom. The father will fully live his paternity to the extent that he will have made himself "useless", seeing his child can walk autonomously in life.
