6th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Parish Mass Book p. 139-141 Racial Justice Sunday 2022

This year's Racial Justice Sunday has the theme "In the Image and Likeness of God" celebrating different presentations of the Holy Family from different countries and cultures. The theme builds on that of the previous year's Racial Justice Sunday 'A Time to Act', which reflected on the importance of everyone recognising themselves, their race, their culture and their history in the life of the Church. We are called to mark the day by praying the words of Pope Francis taken from his encyclical letter Fratelli Tutti - on fraternity and social friendship:

Come, Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in all the peoples of the earth, so that we may discover anew that all are important and all are necessary, different faces of the one humanity that God so loves. Amen.

This Sunday we hold the annual collection for the Church's Racial Justice Appeal. If you are unable to join us for the Second Collection at Mass, online donations can be made by clicking HERE or by using the QR code. Further information on today's celebration can be found by searching for this address online or by clicking on www.cbcew.org.uk/rjs22

A message from Fr Adrian: "Some of you were aware that I was in hospital for the first week of February, so I was very grateful to Bishop Paul Hendricks and Fr Peter Sebastian for covering the Masses on Sunday and for the kind messages of prayer I received. All is well, but most of you don't know that I have a bone marrow problem that is easily treatable in hospital every month and with daily medication, so I plan to be here for many years to come!" It is fitting that we have just celebrated the World Day of Prayer for the Sick, so details of the message from Pope Francis are overleaf.

ON-GOING SUPPORT OF THE PARISH

The 30th World Day of Prayer for the Sick was celebrated on the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, Friday 11th February.

In his message for the thirtieth World Day of the Sick, Pope Francis has paid tribute to healthcare professionals recognising that their service is more than a job, it is a mission: "Your hands, which touch the suffering flesh of Christ, can be a sign of the merciful hands of the Father. Be mindful of the great dignity of your profession, as well as the responsibility that it entails." The Holy Father also praised religious communities caring for the sick and affirmed the importance of Catholic healthcare institutions describing them as "a precious treasure to be protected and preserved; their presence has distinguished the history of the Church, showing her closeness to the sick and the poor, and to situations overlooked by others." Further information on the World Day of the Sick can be found by clicking HERE in our digital newsletter online

Updated Guidance for Communal Worship during the COVID-19 Pandemic from 28 January 2022

The main principles of this guidance are that, alongside the positive effects of Covid vaccination, it should be stressed that any people displaying symptoms of Covid-19 should stay at home and medical advice should be sought as appropriate for those who are ill. It is known that the main form of virus transmission is via personal oral or nasal aerosol. Those attending an act of worship may continue to wear a face covering whilst in the church building but this is now optional. There is no need for formal social distancing in church buildings, although those present should be sensitive to the needs of others around them. We should continue to ensure there is good ventilation and in St Mary Magdalen's we don't need to keep our doors open any longer as there is sufficient air circulation from the open air vents. It is clear from scientific evidence that transmission from surfaces (touch transmission) is now minimal and so the use of hymn books, missals and other worship aids can be resumed with immediate effect. Whilst it is still good practice to sanitise hands on entry and exit, there is no need for readers (or other ministers) to sanitise their hands before reading or performing other ministries in the church. All ministers of Holy Communion (clergy and lay people) should still sanitise their hands for the distribution of Holy Communion. Usual forms of church cleaning are sufficient and though Holy water stoups can be refilled we are using a more hygienic dispenser, so please ensure that the sanitiser station is kept underneath the Holy Water dispenser. As we continue to worship safely together, it's a blessing to have the rota schedules for our ministers of Holy Communion, Readers, Welcomers, Cleaners, and Altar Linen volunteers, so thank you to all of them for their help and for your prayers.
