This Sunday we would have ordinarily welcomed a delegation from the Marshallian Knights and Ladies at our 11am Mass. As last year, sadly Covid restrictions have caused them to cancel their celebration, but please pray for Sir James and Lady Marshall and the entire Marshallian family and their charitable endeavours.

Sir James Marshall (1829–1889) was born in Edinburgh. He had wanted to join the Army but had lost his right arm in a shooting accident. Instead, he went to Exeter College in Oxford and, upon graduating, was ordained as a Scottish Anglican clergyman. Marshall was received into the Roman Catholic Church in 1857 but never became a Catholic priest. In 1863 he was appointed classical master at Birmingham Oratory School, where he became a friend of Cardinal Newman. Marshall studied law and was called to the Bar at the Middle Temple in 1868. He practised law in Manchester where he helped to found The Catholic Times. In 1873 he accepted an appointment in the British Colonial Service as Chief Magistrate and Judicial Assessor to the native chiefs in the Gold Coast, arriving there in July. On the breaking out of the Ashanti War in 1874, he secured the chiefs' assent to the conscription of their tribesmen, and was of great use throughout the campaign in raising levies. He made a good impression on the Ashanti people, who regarded him as a veteran general who had lost his arm in battle. In October 1877, he married Alice Young of Corby, Lincolnshire. Five years after that, he retired and was knighted. Sir James was primarily responsible for helping to spread the Gospel and the growth of Catholicism in modern day Ghana. Every year on the first Sunday in May, the Noble Order of the Knights and Ladies of Sir James Marshall plan to lay a wreath on his tomb and pray for his canonization. With the pilgrimage cancelled again this year please pray for the Marshall family.

| Beyond the Cross' is a five-part art and culture series that follows the Risen Christ through the artist's eye taking in some of the main encounters of the season of Easter. This week we look at a sculpture of Christ's encounter with Saint Thomas – 'Doubting Thomas' – by Andrea del Verrocchio. Simply called 'Christ and Saint Thomas' it was commissioned to stand in a niche outside the Orsanmichele of Florence, the "Kitchen Garden of St. Michael". It was crafted between 1467 and 1483. | The Catholic Bishops of England and Wales have issued a reflection on post-pandemic recovery and the challenges faced by the Church in encouraging people back to the Church and her Sacraments. The Bishops met for their Spring plenary meeting from 19 – 22 April 2021. In a reflection titled The Day of the Lord, the Bishops also praise families, parish communities and those who have worked tirelessly in hospitals, care homes, schools and prisons during these challenging times of ill-health, grief and isolation. The Bishops salute the leadership of our priests and also express gratitude for the 'immense efforts' of those who have provided food for those most in need: "The generosity shown in the distribution of so very many meals has given eloquent expression to the mercy, love and compassion which are at the very heart of God. Many have been touched by the joy of meeting Christ in the poor; and many of the poor by the joy of meeting Christ in selfless parishioners. "Whilst acknowledging the creative and diverse methods of outreach during the pandemic – not least the live streaming of Mass – attention then turns to the post-pandemic world. The Bishops recognise that it is impossible to predict the pace at which we will emerge from the pandemic but state "what is clear is the challenge we face of bringing our communities and the practice of the faith to a still greater expression and strength." They identify the groups of people they are seeking to reach: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Those who have lost the habit of coming to church and who may be anxious about doing so • Those who may not want to re-establish a pattern of Catholic worship – who may have seen a gap widen between the spiritual dimension of their lives and any communal expression of that spiritual quest. • The 'Covid curious' who may have encountered the Catholic Church for the first time during the pandemic The Bishops highlight the strengths, the "veritable treasures" of the Catholic Church as being the tools at their disposal to rise to these challenges. The greatest treasure is, of course, the sacramental life of the Church and at its heart, the Eucharist. "It is the Eucharist, the celebration of the Mass, that makes the Church; and it is the Church, in the gift of the Holy Spirit, which makes the Eucharist. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the lifeblood of the Church. It requires our active participation and, to be fully celebrated, our physical presence. "At this moment, then, we need to have in our sights the need to restore to its rightful centrality in our lives the Sunday Mass, encouraging each to take his or her place once again in the assembly of our brothers and sisters. "We face the task of seeking to nurture the sense of Sunday as 'a weekly gift from God to his people', and something we cannot do without; to see Sunday as the soul of the week, as giving light and meaning to all the responsibilities we live out each day; to see the Sunday Eucharist as food for the unique mission with which we have been endowed." The text of The Day of the Lord, a two page document, can be downloaded via our online newsletter here. | |
| The Diocesan Agency for Evangelisation and Catechesis has partnered with other dioceses to produce a survey which aims to find out about the experiences of Catholics during the COVID-19 pandemic. The survey will help the Diocese to understand what has been happening whilst churches have been closed, or opened only for limited periods of time, and Catholics have had to practice their faith 'at a distance'. Please consider contributing to the survey, selecting the 'Archdiocese of Southwark' from the drop-down menu, so that we can hear about what God has been doing and what he wants to say to us about the future of the Church in this part of England and Wales. The survey should take about 10 minutes to complete and the deadline for submission is 4th July 2021. To complete the form please click on this link in the online digital version of our newsletter: Covid- 19 Survey Form – Archdiocese of Southwark | |
