6th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Parish Mass Book p 136-139

In the wake of the terrible earthquakes in Syria and Turkey on 6th February, CAFOD already have helpers on the ground in Syria and are responding to the needs of those affected. CAFOD have been working in Syria for many years providing humanitarian support to families affected by the 12 year long conflict – families who now face another devastating crisis. Because of your generosity in recent Fast Days and with other donations, they were able to make an initial allocation of £100,000 to provide urgent humanitarian support – food, water, shelter, medical assistance and winter kits - in the worst affected areas. They have also set up an emergency appeal which can be accessed by clicking HERE via the online newsletter on your electronic device.

Our prayers are with all those affected by the earthquake in Syria and Turkey. CAFOD appreciate our support and invite all parishioners to pray for everyone affected and to consider donating to CAFOD's Syria-Turkey Earthquake Appeal online.

A special prayer suggested by CAFOD can be seen by clicking onto this LINK in the online newsletter on your electronic device.

Some advance notice; Friday 3rd March is our CAFOD Lent Family Fast Day with a special collection on Sunday 5th March.

Today and next Sunday (19th) we welcome Fr Dominic Allain to help us to celebrate our Masses. If Fr Dominic looks a little lost or 'in need of help' please be sure to give him your 'helping hand', thank you.

ON-GOING SUPPORT OF THE PARISH

Thank you for your continued support of the Parish, especially whilst we are unable to take basket collections in church as we used to. If you haven't yet signed up to contribute by Standing Order or online, then please help our 'Maintenance and Mission' fund by clicking on this link in the online version of the newsletter. Thank you for giving what you can, it will be a great blessing for the continued support of the church.

missio
Today. Tomorrow. Together.

Missio Red Boxes

If you recently handed-in your box to be emptied please come along and collect it after any of our weekend Masses. Thank you.

Advance Notice; on Ash Wednesday our Masses will be at 9.30am and 7pm with the opportunity of receiving Ashes. During Lent last year our 'Stations of the Cross' were at 10.30am, between the 9.30 and 11am Masses each Sunday. Would parishioners like this to continue or, might you prefer to change the day and time? If you would like to comment, please email Nicola, in the Parish Office, with your preference at mortlake@RCAOS.org.uk, thank you.

"Is our Lady calling you to Lourdes in 2023?" There are plans for a pilgrimage to Lourdes this year with HCPT, staying in Hosanna House, a peaceful haven with its own chapel, offering stunning views of the Pyrenees. The group of pilgrims would fly from Stansted Airport and have a nurse with them available to help with any of the assisted pilgrims. The estimated cost for this week would be £819 and would include, the flights, insurance, meals, as well as regular visits to the grotto. If you would like to go to Lourdes as a pilgrim, assisted pilgrim, be a carer, helper or would like to learn more, please contact Maggie Barker on 07725 561 923 or email thebarkers73@hotmail.com

Calling all Parents: would you have an hour spare on a Saturday morning to help clean our beautiful Church? The cleaning teams need new members to join in and to lighten the workload. If we boost our numbers your slot should only come around every six weeks or so. Also, we do have a Monday Team who help after School drop off. If anyone would like to volunteer, Father Adrian, Nicola, Part-time Parish Administrator, and I would be extremely grateful. Please email clare@magneticrc.co.uk or, the Parish Office on mortlake@RCAOS.org.uk to offer your help, thank you.

If anyone would like to send Fr Adrian a "Get Well" card please post it through the letterbox of the Presbytery so that Nicola can forward it onto Father. It is possible to visit Fr Adrian during his convalescence, however, All VISITS MUST BE BOOKED THROUGH THE PARISH OFFICE, VIA NICOLA, who will then liaise with Fr Adrian, thank you 😊

Music at Sunday Mass. Fr Peter sends his thanks to Kate Martin who is currently providing some music on Sundays! If anyone can play an instrument and would like to join Kate, a group of others or, would like to join our singers please contact the Parish Office on mortlake@RCAOS.org.uk with your details.

Before he left for his treatment Fr Adrian was aware of an application by a Ukrainian group from our Parish to see if we can support a 'group for refugees' in our Hall. Fr Adrian is in favour, and hopes it can go ahead, but, will need to see if this group can receive the necessary funding for it to take place. We will keep the Parish updated if we receive any more news.

Please see the Caritas Social Action poster 'SJOG Homes for Ukraine' in the Church porch ...

We have had a number of families volunteer to help open their homes to Ukrainian refugees. If you would like to help please see the poster! One parish family in particular, have had the pleasure of hosting a family for some months now, they said just how rewarding they have found hosting their guests, but as they are now nearing the end of the time of being hosts they are hoping that another family, in the Parish, will open their home. For anyone wanting more details, or can help, please contact the Parish Office at mortlake@RCAOS.org.uk and we can put you in touch.

We continue our Parish Prayers for Peace for the People of Ukraine:

Loving God, we pray for the people of Ukraine, for all those suffering or afraid, that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices. We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need, through Christ our Lord.

Church Hall development with a message from the Parish Finance Committee: Dear fellow parishioners, as Fr Adrian has noted in recent newsletters we are starting the process to consider our options with respect to the future development of the Church Hall. To support this we are looking to set up a small working group and would be grateful to hear from any parishioners who would be keen to help especially if you have any previous experience around property design/development, architecture, planning and fund raising. This is not expected to be a significant time commitment. Over the coming weeks we will also be reaching out to the whole Parish to seek wider views and feedback on the hall development. If you are interested and able to spare time over the coming months then please email Steve Smith on mortlakema1@rcaos.org.uk or, the Parish Office on mortlake@RCAOS.org.uk, thank you.

Please pray for Parish Family and friends who are unwell:

The sick and house bound are very much at the heart of the church and support us in their prayers as we support them in our prayers at every Mass. Please remember all the sick of our Parish, those who care for them and those in any kind of need. Individual names of the sick can be emailed to Fr Adrian for inclusion at Mass. These prayer petitions will be offered at every Mass as Fr Adrian keeps the private list of names at the altar.

"Rejoice that your names are written in Heaven."

Luke 10:20

Mass Intention envelopes are available at the entrance and exit to the church if you would like to request a Mass for a family member or friend, for the Holy Souls or for a particular need.

Please pray for the repose of the souls of

Jean Garner, Mark Allwright, Nancy McDonnell, Sylvie Parke, Sophia McCormack, Colin Sambrook, Evelyn McCabe, Ruth Carroll, Luigi Vicca, William Cummins, Lawrence Deacon, Michael McGuire and all those whose anniversaries occur near this time. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, Rest in Peace. Amen The names of those who have died are taken from the Death Register, if you would like to include in prayer an individual whose funeral did not occur here please list their name in an email to the Parish Office. Please also state if you would like their name to be added to the Book of Remembrance and to the list above for our prayers of intercession at our Sunday Mass
