UK Bishops call for urgent action plan to prevent racial inequality amid Covid-19: The results of a recent survey carried out by the Office of National Statistics (ONS) reveal a significant disproportion in the number of deaths due to coronavirus among ethnic minorities when compared to their number in the total population of the UK. In light of this, the UK government launched an official inquiry last month to investigate the disproportionate effect of Covid-19 on people with black and minority ethnic backgrounds. According to the Catholic Association for Racial Justice (CARJ), the factors that affect the ethnic minorities include poverty, employment and housing conditions among others. This is further pronounced with the increased numbers of workers from ethnic minorities in essential services like social care, transportation, healthcare and caregiving. Bishop Paul McAleenan, the President of the Office for Migration Policy of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, welcomed the news of the inquiry. He however noted that an inquiry alone is not enough. "The government needs urgently to tackle the known structural inequalities that have left some communities paying such a high price," ...

Fr Adrian celebrates Mass each day for the needs of the Parish Family: see overleaf for details

From The Archbishop of Southwark, Most Rev John Wilson:
With immediate effect, without any exceptions, all our churches and chapels across the Archdiocese must remain closed to the public until further notice. This is to suppress the spread of the COVID-19 virus among gatherings of people, and, in particular, to protect the most vulnerable

The cemetery is open daily from 9am to 3pm.

24th – 31st May 2020

Archbishop John Wilson will celebrate a Live-Streamed Mass from St George's Cathedral this Sunday. The Mass will be available from 10am on 24th May and can be watched by entering this YouTube link: <https://youtu.be/7zos2U0S97M> or by clicking the above link in our digital newsletter.

If you are a Senior and would like support at home such as food deliveries, please call the FiSH Neighbourhood Care Helpline on 020 8876 3414.

Staying at home: a new resource for young people
Southwark Catholic Youth Service has worked with some 6th form students on a mini-series 'Christ is Alive'. This is an invitation for young people to focus on staying spiritually healthy and to ponder some of the big questions about life, through journaling and prayer. This may be particularly relevant to our families during this difficult time of lockdown. Please encourage any young people to take a look online at: www.youtube.com/southwarkcatholicyouthservice

Masses for front line workers and their families
Our front-line workers in hospitals and in care homes all over the country, including members of our own Parish Family who are keyworkers, and especially to all family members who provide care at home, are giving exceptional service to those who are vulnerable and in need of treatment at this time. In order to show a spiritual solidarity with carers and front-line workers, each week a Catholic Bishop will celebrate a live-streamed Mass in their Cathedral. This Thursday, 28th May, Bishop Terence Drainey, will celebrate Mass at 7pm via the website <http://middlesbroughcathedral.org/>

Bishop Paul McAleenan said "We all have a responsibility to address the long-standing issue of racial inequality in our society that this health crisis has brought to light. The Catholic Association for Racial Justice is also calling for the creation of an action plan to ensure the provision of support for the BAME communities. The association appeals for priority to be given to combating the causes of inequality such as education, income, housing and employment. Download the CARJ letter via an online link.

Pope Francis offers this prayer for Catholics wishing to make a spiritual communion:

At your feet, O my Lord Jesus, I prostrate myself and offer you repentance of my contrite heart, which is humbled in its nothingness and in your holy presence. I adore you in the sacrament of your love. I desire to receive you into the poor dwelling that my heart offers you. While waiting for the happiness of sacramental communion, I wish to possess you in spirit. Come to me, O my Jesus, since I for my part, am coming to you. May your love embrace my whole being in life and death. I believe in you, I hope in you, I love you. Amen.

During this time when it is not possible to physically receive Holy Communion, Catholics are encouraged to make a spiritual communion. An excellent prayer sheet has been produced by the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, including a prayer for spiritual communion. This can be found online via: <http://www.rcsouthwark.co.uk/media/No-Mass-A4.pdf>
