Gift Aid at St Mary Magdalen

A big thank you to all parishioners who have generously supported our Gift Aid scheme during the last 12 months. We expect our tax reclaim to raise close to £12,000 for the current tax year. Next weekend 17th March you will be able to collect your new boxes of envelopes which start from the beginning of April so please do collect them as soon as possible. If there are any new parishioners who are taxpayers and would like to support the Parish through Gift Aid can they please contact our Gift Aid officer, Steve Smith, at the following email address mortlakema1@rcaos.org.uk

Parish & Local News

The Parish office is closed until further notice and the Church will be closed during the week. We will open the Church on Sundays for Sunday Mass but please check our website www.stmarymags.org.uk for more information on Mass times and Church opening times as more information becomes available.

If you need to organise anointing of the sick, please contact Our Lady Queen of Peace at eastsheen@rcaos.org.uk

Homily for Canon Francis Moran available to read

The funeral Mass took place at Southwark Cathedral for Canon Francis, on Wednesday 20 February. The homily was given by Fr Joe O'Connor, and it is displayed on the noticeboard outside should you want to read it. There are also a few copies beside the newsletter at the back of church should you want to take one home to read.

Police Community Prevention Notice: Michael Rich

Some of you may be aware of Michael Rich, a homeless man, who has been seen around St Mary Magdalen many times of the years. Due to his aggressive and abusive behaviour, he Kew Safer Neighbourhood Team has taken out a Community Prevention Notice against him, and he is forbidden from entering the church, the car park, hall etc. or any place of worship in the area. Instructions on what to do if he tries to get onto church property is on the notice board at the entrance to the church – please do read it.
