Searching for God

An important part of any Christian Community is how it engages with others, particularly those searching for God. Our parish is no exception. Do you know anyone who wants to find out more about Catholicism? Please encourage them to contact me over the summer and have a chat. They might even be considering becoming a Catholic.

We hope to start a weekly meeting in October to work through our Faith with talks and discussion. It is important that some parishioners attend to welcome anyone and to join with the discussion. It is an opportunity for existing parishioners to refresh their knowledge and deepen their faith. Please contact me if you might be interested.

Summer Garden Party

Last Sunday's party was a lovely, relaxed and family friendly get together where so many parishioners came together. Many thanks to everyone who contributed and worked to put everything together, particularly Geraldine Barker & Josh de Souza? This wonderful event also raised about £3,000 for Parish funds. Thank you.

This includes the Grand Draw which raised a record £1,900 and we all thank Chris and Jan Hopkins for the remarkable work they did. Enjoy the rest of the summer!
